

High School

Home Connection

Gratitude

Dear _____,

Today in class, we learned that gratitude is when we show thanks and appreciation for something.

Please encourage your student to share the activity with family members and identify someone in their family or the community to whom they can express gratitude.

Please do not hesitate to reach out with any questions or concerns.

Best,
